

Better for you. Better for Colorado.

Who may use the logos?

The COLORADO PROUD logo may be used to promote any food or agricultural product that has been grown, raised or processed in Colorado. "Grown" applies only to fresh produce, herbs, grains and horticultural products, "Raised" applies only to livestock, and "Processed" applies only to value-added/manufactured food products. Fresh produce, herbs, grains and horticultural products must be grown in Colorado. Livestock must be raised in Colorado. Value-added consumer foods (jams, salsas, sauces, chips, dairy, sausage, jerky, etc.) must be manufactured in a commercial kitchen in Colorado and companies are encouraged to use ingredients that are grown or raised in Colorado. Foods manufactured in home kitchens under the Cottage Foods Act do not qualify for the program. Non-food items must be at least 50 percent agricultural origin by weight, and that agricultural base must have been grown, raised or processed in Colorado.

The COLORADO ORGANIC logo may be used to help market Colorado agricultural products that have been certified by a federally accredited organic certification program.

The COLORADO CUISINE logo may be used by restaurants that feature Colorado products on their menus.

To use the logos, companies must join Colorado Proud online, verifying their eligibility and agreeing to comply with the Logo Use Guidelines (on back). There is NO COST to participate in the program. Artwork is provided at no cost to the company, and promotional items are available at the cost of production.

Retailers, farmers' markets and restaurants are encouraged to use these logos to promote Colorado products to their customers. The logos may only be used to promote Colorado products, as described above.

Logo Use Guidelines

The COLORADO PROUD family of logos was developed by the Colorado Department of Agriculture to identify food and agricultural products from our state. The logos have been trademarked by the State of Colorado and may only be used by those that have become a member of Colorado Proud and have agreed to the program terms and conditions.

The logos may only be used in a manner that positively promotes Colorado's food and agricultural industry and may never be used in a manner that appears to be an endorsement of the State of Colorado.

The COLORADO PROUD family of logos may be used on product packaging, sales literature, advertising, web sites, banners, etc. When used, the logos must comply with the guidelines set forth in these Logo Use Guidelines. If a company wishes to use the logos in a manner other than described in these guidelines, it must request and receive permission in writing from the Colorado Department of Agriculture.

Any use of these logos which is deemed a misrepresentation of the intended use by the Colorado Department of Agriculture may result in the suspension of membership.

The COLORADO ORGANIC logo may be used only to market Colorado agricultural products that have been certified by a federally accredited organic certification program. The Colorado Organic logo does not take the place of any label statements required by the National Organic Program.
