

Raquelita's

Denver, CO

Raquelitas Tortillas traces its roots back to 1948, and as a vital cornerstone of Denver's Mexican food scene born on Larimer street back in the 1940's, we have remained a constant fixture there ever since! While many others opened tortilla factories all over the Colorado Front Range over the years, none have the rich history, the heritage, or made the contribution to the birth and long-term success of Mexican food restaurants, as Raquelitas has. In fact, recent research has shown the DeLaTorre family has one of the five oldest continually operated tortilla factories in the entire United States, enjoying a highly respected reputation in our industry - nationwide!

Raquelita's products offered by SOURCE Local Foods:

- High quality tortillas and chips, family run business since 1948